CODEL - WEIL. Mr. Richard S. Weil, a member of the staff of the House Un-American Activities, is planning a trip through the various countries of Western Europe on Committee business.

Mr. Weil has been authorized to utilize local currencies in the Congressional Travel Account (19FT561) to defray official travel expenses.

Provisions of the Handbook for Congressional Foreign Travel apply. Posts are requested to arrange hotel reservations, meet on arrivals to expedite customs clearances, and assist as required. All posts are required to notify onward posts and the Department when Mr. Weil's plans become firm and make commercial reservations accordingly.

Mr. Weil leaves Washington, D. C. on August 15 at 2:00 p.m. via MATS A-423 and arrives in Paris on August 16 at 12:50 p.m. Paris is requested to make hotel reservations for him for three nights.

From Paris, Mr. Weil wishes to proceed to Frankfort and then to Berlin; and he may possible include Zurich and London on his itinerary.

At the present time, Mr. Weil plans to return from Paris via a MATS flight on September 7.
